First Preface

P. Let us all pray and plead to the Lord for His blessings and mercies.

C. Lord of all blessings, bless us and help us.

P. May we become worthy to continuously offer You praise, thanksgiving, glory, adoration and everlasting majesty.

O glorious Lord the Messiah, who chose to allow Yourself to be tried in a court of justice, and like a sheep before its shearers,^x stood silently before the judge, Pilate, to be unjustly condemned to death by the wicked ones of this world, and who by Your grace, delivered us from the condemnation that was justly ours, You are worthy of praise, honour and adoration, at this time of prayer and worship and all the days of our lives,
now and forever more.

C. Amen.

Prayer

P. The Word, who proceeded from the Father before the ages, and in the fullness of time, took flesh of the blessed virgin Mary, the prophecies and revelations of old have been fulfilled through Your Holiness.

The mystery hidden to generations, was openly revealed before the whole world.

He who is reverently praised by the heavenly hosts,
was insulted by wretched humanity.

Even though the splendour of the heavens could not match the glory of Your countenance, they spat on Your face and flogged You with a whip.

The supreme Judge of all judges, was tried on a day like this.

The One who spread the firmament like a garment, and who established the earth and the sea,
was declared guilty by the judge, Pilate.

The heavenly beings above, shuddered on seeing You;
those on earth below, mocked You.

The Cherubim in the heavens, blessed You;
on earth below, the wicked ones insulted You.

The Seraphim in the heavens, proclaimed Your holiness;^{xi} on earth below, deceitful men abused You.

The One who is clothed with brilliance in the heavens, was clothed with humiliation by those on earth.

The One who is praised with the Father in the heavens, was counted with the criminals on earth.

The One, who from the heavens, crowns all kings, was crowned on earth with thorns.

The One, who in the heavens, shares heavenly glory with the Father and the Holy Spirit, was crucified on earth, between robbers.

The One who, from the heavens, turned bitter water into a sweet drink at Marah,^{xii} was offered bitter vinegar on earth.

Chant

Early in the morning on the sixth day, the Lord was brought by the Pharisees to Pilate's chambers;
there He suffered much:
Harsh words from the Jews,
and beatings from the servants;
in the hands of sinners, He was treated like a sinner.
He bore the pain, and accepted the judgment of the wicked, to be hung on the cross. Bless us O Lord.

Praise

C. As it was in the beginning, is now and forever shall be. Amen.

Jesus, because of my sins,
You were caught in the hands of cruel people.
O Lord, all through the night,
because You suffered greatly at the hands of the Jews, and willingly surrendered Yourself
like a powerless person, to their resentful beating,
we thankfully praise You and bow down before Your holiness.

Prayer of Incense

- P. Praise be to the One who was sacrificed on a tree.
You are the One who saved Your holy Church from the pit of sin, from impure sacrifices, and from all unholy perversions.

By Your blood, we were saved from death and destruction.

O Lord, because You alone are our Saviour;
we revere Your cross,
and cling to Your passion.

Accept the prayers of us who are weak,
and answer unto us.
Bless the offspring of Your holy Church.
You are worthy of praise and honour,
now and forever more.

- C. Amen.

Prayer

P. O Lord, who is without beginning and end and beyond time itself, and yet lived within the limitations of space and time as fully God and fully Man, we praise You because You established a new covenant for us by allowing Your body to be broken and Your holy blood to be shed.

Behold, the Lord is in agony!
Behold, the King is being flogged with a whip!
Behold, the Lord of the universe is being sentenced like a criminal!

Judas is betraying.
The Son of God is bearing the agony.

Satan gloats and says,
"I who triumphed over Adam, will never know defeat."

John, with great love, follows Jesus into the courtyard of the High Priest and stands in shock.
Simon denies the Lord.
Thomas runs away and James hides.

Annas' people are preparing the cross.
A crown of thorns is being prepared.
Nails are being sharpened.

The Saviour seems to be losing the battle.
For us, however, by that defeat, we are indeed victors.

The daughters of Jerusalem who defied the Messiah are lamenting.

Those who put their trust in Him are indeed saved.

Teachings

1. The Righteous One is silent at the place of judgment.
Though not saying a word, He is being beaten.
When He stands like a sacrificial lamb, without resisting,
the Jewish people angrily shout, "Crucify Him!"^{xxvii}
2. The angels on high, are shaken.
Seeing the Creator suffering, they are melting away.
Let us praise the love that brought the Son of God willingly down to earth to take shame and accusations upon Himself.
3. They cast great suffering upon Him.
The Jews, angrily ill-treat Him.
They spit on His holy face.
They poke His head.
The Lord of lords takes on Himself immense suffering.
4. O You Sinner, look at the Saviour.
What crime did the Lord of lords commit in this world?
He healed the sick.
He raised the dead.
He fed the hungry and saved sinners.

Nicene Creed

P. We believe in the one true God, the Father Almighty;

C. Maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds; Light of light, very God of very God;
begotten not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who, for us
and for our salvation,
came down from heaven
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary,
and was made Man;
He was crucified also for us in the days of Pontius Pilate;
He suffered and died and was buried;
on the third day He rose again by His own holy will, ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father;
He shall come again with glory,
to judge both the living and the dead;
and of His Kingdom, there will be no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life;
who proceeds from the Father;
who with the Father and Son together is worshipped and glorified;
who spoke by the prophets and the apostles;
and we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the new life of the world to come. Amen.

D. Bless us O Lord. Let us stand reverently.

C. Lord, have mercy.

Closing Prayer

P. Our Lord and our God, praise be to You forever, praise be to You, praise be to You.

Our Lord Jesus Christ,
by Your grace and infinite mercy,
hear our prayers and accept our worship.

Our Lord and our God,
come to our help
and make us holy forever.

Our Lord,
may our worship be pleasing to You,
our adoration agreeable,
our supplications acceptable,
and our prayers honourable to You.

O Lord, may Your blessings, mercies, help, grace and all Your divine gifts, descend upon us who are weak,
and dwell with the potentially weak humanity forever.

C. Amen.

Closing Prayer

P. May we be guarded and protected day and night by the glorious cross of the Son of God which is the strong fortress for true believers, the terror for devils and the glory of the angels.

May the Lord save us and protect us all through our lives, from the wrath of evil human beings, the envy of Satan and non believers,
harassing authorities,
the clutches of merciless superiors,
all known and unknown enemies,

who made the heavens and the earth.

May the Lord God bless and sanctify all of you,
who have come prepared,
and joined us in this spiritual worship.

be heard and accepted before the glorious throne
of the Triune God,
the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

C. Amen.
